- We will prioritize the user stories or tasks based on their value and dependencies. Break them down into smaller, manageable tasks to ensure better estimation and tracking.
- We will set specific time limits for each task or user story. This helps in managing time effectively and encourages the team to focus on completing tasks within the allotted time frame
- We will conduct daily stand-up meetings to keep the team aligned and address any obstacles or issues. Each team member should briefly discuss their progress, plans, and any blockers they are facing. The stand-up should be time-boxed and focused.
- The critical path is
